DETAILED ACTION

The examiner acknowledges the cancellation of claims 1-32 and the new replacement claims 33-80.

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 33-42, 45-53, and 56-80 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-30 of U.S. Patent No. 6,616,749. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claimed pigment and methods presently claimed in the application is suggested by the claims of US 6,616,749. The reference suggests the claimed pigment comprising the shape factor of at least 45, wherein having a particle distribution of at least 80% by weight of the particles have an equivalent spherical diameter less than 2 micron and wherein at least 12% by weight of the particles have an equivalent spherical diameter less than 0.25 microns. Industrial application of the composition to coat paper is also suggested by the reference. Thus, reference suggests the pigment, method, and industrial application in a manner conducive with the invention of the application.

3. Claims 33-36, 38, 41-47, 49 and 52-55 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 40 of U.S. Patent No. 6,537,363. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the reference suggests the claimed pigment comprising the shape factor of at least 45, wherein having a particle distribution of at least 80% by weight of the particles have an equivalent spherical diameter less than 2 micron and wherein at least 12% by weight of the particles have an equivalent spherical diameter less than 0.25 microns and whose BET surface area is greater than $12 \text{ m}^2/\text{g}$. Industrial application of the composition to coat paper is also suggested by the reference.

4. Claims 33-36 and 45-47 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,402,826. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the reference suggests the claimed pigment comprising the shape factor of at least 45, wherein having a particle distribution of at least 80% by weight of the particles have an equivalent spherical diameter less than 2 micron and wherein at least 12% by weight of the particles have an equivalent spherical diameter less than 0.25 microns. Industrial application of the composition to coat paper is also suggested by the reference.

5. Claims 33-38, 41-42, 45-49, 52-53 and 56-57 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-14, 19, 20-21, 23 and 24 of U.S. Patent No. 6,610,137. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the reference suggests the claimed pigment comprising the shape factor of at least 45, wherein having a particle distribution of at least 80% by weight of the particles have an equivalent spherical diameter less than 2 micron and wherein at least 12% by weight of the particles have an equivalent spherical diameter less than 0.25 microns. Industrial application of the composition to coat paper is also suggested by the reference.
